

ESPRESSO

Meet the new Discovery Education Espresso.

Your daily learning platform.

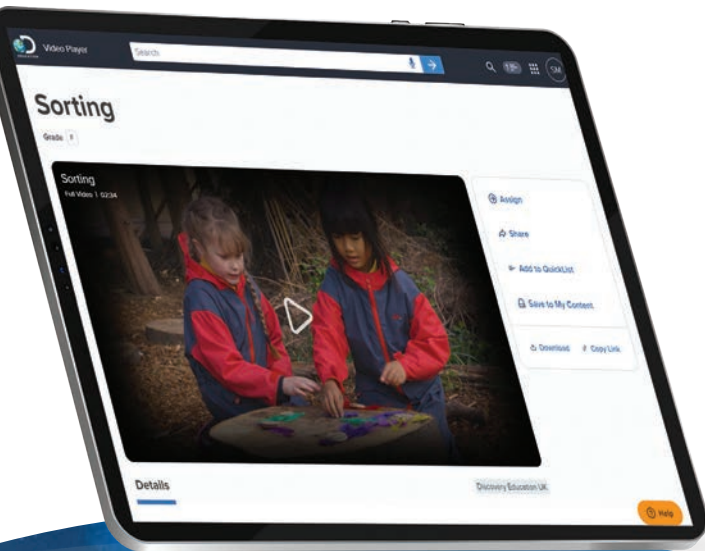

Creating equitable, engaging learning experiences may be the biggest challenge, but it also has the biggest reward. That's why Discovery Education is committed to helping you every step of the way with our reimagined and improved service.

Built around the amazing, timely content we're known for; Espresso is one secure place you can rely on to create engaging learning experiences, closely track pupil progress, and gain professional inspiration—every day.

Relevant, timely content + useful teaching tools all in one place.

No matter what you teach or how your pupils learn, you'll find attention-grabbing content for tomorrow's lesson. Our treasury of videos, texts, activities, audio, images, worksheets and more, span all primary key stages, subjects and topics of today. It's diverse, authentic and leaves you wanting to explore more.

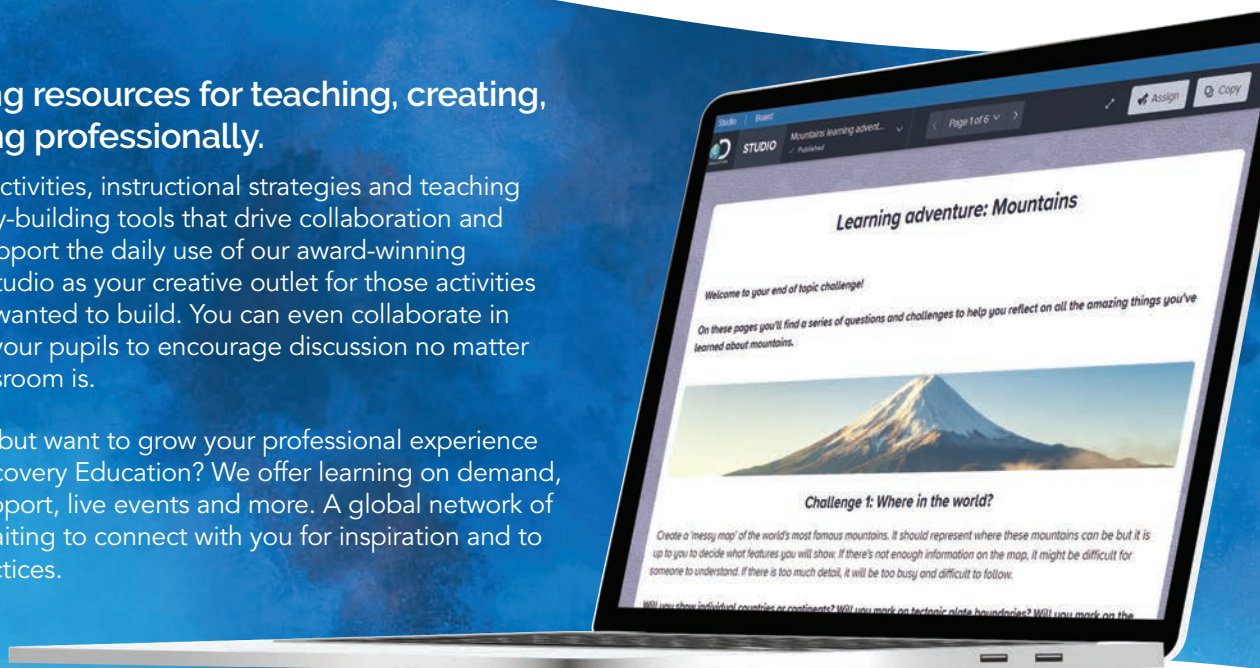

Check in with pupils daily using our new Quiz tool. Choose from a range of question formats, polling to open-ended, multiple-choice to image annotation. There's no shortage of ways to accurately measure progress. Espresso makes it easy to design interactive learning experiences that spark curiosity and make classroom discussions lively and engaging.

Time-saving resources for teaching, creating, and growing professionally.

Ready-to-use activities, instructional strategies and teaching tips and activity-building tools that drive collaboration and creativity all support the daily use of our award-winning content. Use Studio as your creative outlet for those activities you've always wanted to build. You can even collaborate in real-time with your pupils to encourage discussion no matter where the classroom is.

Short on time, but want to grow your professional experience and use of Discovery Education? We offer learning on demand, just-in-time support, live events and more. A global network of educators is waiting to connect with you for inspiration and to share best practices.

One secure platform that seamlessly integrates with your other edtech tools

Consolidate and simplify your and your pupils' online experience with the systems you depend on every day. New login methods make accessing Discovery Education effortless, without compromising security. And we've made it easy to share our content and resources into the learning environments you already have in place, including Google Classroom and Microsoft Teams.
