Enrich your curriculum

Support for teachers

- All the guidance you need with step-by-step teaching notes for hundreds of lessons.
- Rich multi-media resources support the scheme throughout for high-quality lessons.

A full and inclusive education for all pupils

- Engage all children and encourage a love of music.
- Flexible resources allow you to adapt the scheme of work to suit the needs of your pupils.
- Help children to embed knowledge through links to other subjects and topics across the curriculum.

Coherent progression

- Follow our guided route through each year or select resources to build your own curriculum.
- Comprehensive planning and assessment documents make it straightforward to implement and demonstrate pupils' progress.

NEW

Curriculum maps, skills summaries and skills progression documentation show National Curriculum coverage and further support planning and preparation.

“The activities build and extend [children’s] musical experiences through structured lessons which also allow the teacher to extend or support wherever necessary to suit the individual needs of the children and the school situation.”

Rachel Moorhouse, Music Co-ordinator, William Law CE Primary School

Lesson bank

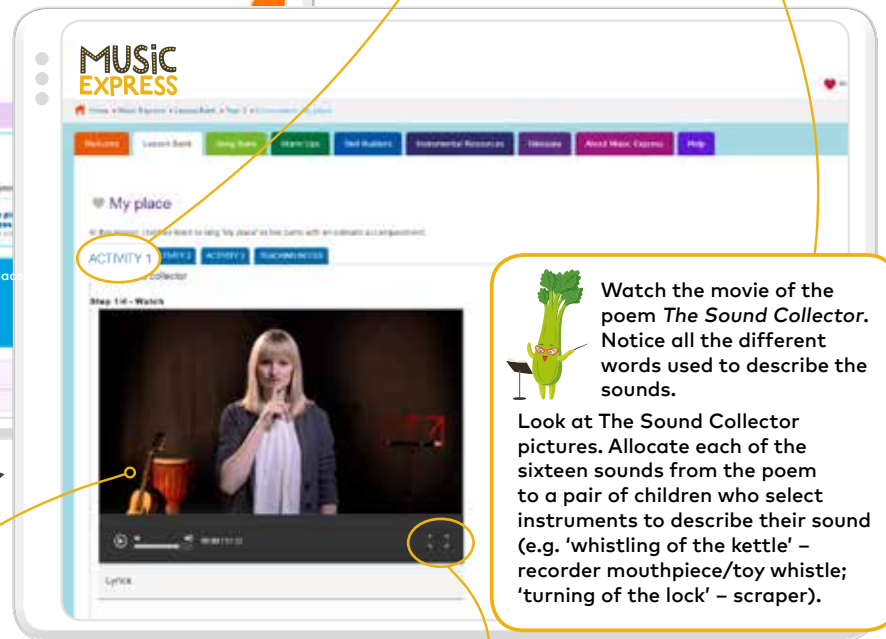

Create a ambitious, coherent curriculum with downloadable unit overviews, lesson plans, assessment sheets and teaching notes.

Work through the carefully sequenced activities in each lesson

Support teachers with step-by step teaching notes

Includes high-quality video and audio content with demonstration and backing tracks and synchronised on-screen lyrics

Watch the movie of the poem The Sound Collector. Notice all the different words used to describe the sounds.

Look at The Sound Collector pictures. Allocate each of the sixteen sounds from the poem to a pair of children who select instruments to describe their sound (e.g. 'whistling of the kettle' – recorder mouthpiece/toy whistle; 'turning of the lock' – scraper).

Each activity has a full-screen display to present to your class

Song bank

The Song Bank contains over 400 songs and we're adding more all the time!
